WOMAN'S WORLD.

W. C. T. U. Committee Visited The Almshouse Yesterday.

A Beautiful Euchre Party At Ghent. The Francis Barnes Y held an important meeting—entertainments of various kinds—coming and going in society.

A committee from the W. C. T. U., and the King's Daughters visited the almshouse yesterday, taking with them oranges and other delicacies for the sick. Services were held, and Bibles and literature distributed. The ladies were glad to find that Mr. Taral, the superintendent, had been re-elected. Spectacles are needed (Nos. 12 and 16) by two of the inmates, and the committee would be glad to receive a donation of this kind which could be sent to 104 Charlotte street.

FRANCIS BARNES Y. The Francis Barnes Y held a meeting of importance on Thursday evening, when Mrs. J. L. Belote was unanimously elected president. Other business of importance was transacted, and arrangements were made for a social to be held on the evening of the 8th of May. Mrs. R. H. Jones presided.

BEAUTIFUL EUCBRE PARTY. At their handsome home in Ghent, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. White entertained the Euchre Club, on Thursday evening, at one of the latest card parties given in Norfolk this season.

The handsome parlors were decorated with lilacs and growing plants.

Mrs. Glover won the ladies' prize, a cut glass powder box, and Mr. McIntosh, the gentlemen's, a shaving mirror.

The hooby prizes, which consisted of a dainty fan and a box of candy, were won by Miss Margaret Shepherd and Mr. Dobbs. The consolation fell to Mr. Glover.

Mrs. White and Miss Katharine Bell kept the score.

After the games an elaborate supper was served.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Burwell, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Cooke, Mrs. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Dobbs, Mr. and Mrs. Glover, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Graham, Judge and Mrs. Gannett, Mr. and Mrs. Dancy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Lane Kelly, Mrs. Rufus Parks, Mrs. Hinton, of Petersburg; Miss Elizabeth Bell, Mr. McIntosh, Mr. A. H. Grandy, Mr. Reid, Mr. Lamb and Mr. Tunstall.

PERSONAL MENTION.

from New York on Wednesday, and in from New York on Wednesday, and in future will reside with Mrs. Starke's mother, on Charlotte street.

Rev. Ernest Thacker and Mrs. Thacker will leave on Monday for Oxford, N. C., where Mr. Thacker will hold a series of revival services, which will last ten days.

Miss Alice Jones, who has been spending a few days in Baltimore, has returned.

Mrs. Forbes, of Warrenton, is visiting Mrs. Willoughby Cooke, on Duke street.

Mr. George Briggs is spending a few days in New York.

Mrs. Van de Carr and her little daughter, Lady Bot, left Wednesday evening for their home, Stockport-on-Hudson, much to the regret of their many friends in Norfolk, where Mrs. Van de Carr is a great favorite.

Miss Nizza Burwell, who has been spending the winter in Fredericksburg, has just returned from the University of Virginia where she received many loving attentions. Miss Burwell's many friends will be glad to know that she will spend several weeks in Norfolk.

Mrs. Frank Gray entertained at her home in Ghent Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Virginia Newton. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Dobbs, Mr. and Mrs. Burwell, Mrs. Lillie Walke, Miss Gussie Newton, Miss Rena Burwell, Miss Elsie Chamberlaine, Dr. McCurdy, Mr. Burrow and Mr. Walter Santos.

Mrs. W. W. Spence, of Baltimore, and her daughter, Mrs. Butler, Miss Butler, and Miss Lemon, who have been stopping at the Princess Anne, Virginia Beach, returned on Wednesday to Baltimore.

A BUSY FACTORY.

Never Closes Its Doors, Day or Night.

The famous "white city" as the pure food factories of the Postum Cereal Co. Ltd., of Battle Creek, Mich., are called, never shuts down day or night.

The great ovens once heated up are kept going, as are the grinding mills, blending machines, mixing machines and the entire plant, the day laborers, men and women, are replaced at six o'clock in the evening by a night force.

The name "white city" was given by the citizens to the location owing to the color of the numerous factory buildings which are painted pure white with very dark bronze green trimmings.

The utmost cleanliness is observed throughout, and the appetizing odors from the foods in preparation permeate the air in all directions.

Their products, Grape-Nuts breakfast food and Postum Cereal Food Coffee, go all over the world to the breakfast tables of the well-to-do Japanese and Chinese, and to the high caste Brahmins of India, to the Emperor of Germany, to Royalty in Italy, to Great Britain, South America, and they are found in practically all of the best homes in America.

By scientific selection of the certain parts of grains which supply phosphate of Potash and other important elements for quickly rebuilding the most delicate parts of the human body (brain and nerve centres), and making up therefrom a most delicious food, Grape-Nuts, and a breakfast food-drink, Postum Cereal Coffee, this firm has become known as the foremost producers of Health Foods in the world, and their name affixed to a package of food is sufficient evidence of its purity and excellence.

the guest of Mrs. R. B. Pegram, on Granby street, left for her home, in Baltimore, Wednesday evening.

The many friends of Mr. William Preston will be interested to learn that he has accepted a position with the Diamond Spring Mineral Company.

Miss Mamie Bull entertained at luncheon on Thursday in honor of two young ladies from Old Point.

Miss Ruby Reed, who has been visiting friends in Catonsville, is expected home to-day.

Mrs. Lawrence Groner, who has been so ill, will leave in a few days for Atlantic City.

Mrs. E. St. John has moved into her beautiful new home, on Lute street.

Miss Dula, of St. Louis, is visiting Miss Parker at her home, in Ghent.

Mrs. Maury, who was here to attend the Stays-Jordan wedding, left yesterday for her home, in Smithfield.

Mrs. Edward Smith has announced the marriage of her daughter, Miss Margaret Cabell, to Mr. G. Tayloe Gwaltney, which occurred in Charlottesville, Va., on Tuesday, April 24th, 1900.

The Carnival.

The special feature at the Carnival last night was the grand juvenile cake walk which was immensely enjoyed by the crowd. The participants were Master Eugene Crowder with Little Miss Mary Huggins; Master Herman Huggins with Miss May Wall; and Miss Cora Lee Griffin with Miss Grace Brimmer. The two last, who did exceedingly well, withdrew from the contest and the prizes were awarded to Eugene Crowder and May Wall.

It was a big day at the fair. The pretty ice-cream booth decorated in pink, which is in charge of Mrs. Belote, assisted by Mrs. Steele, Mrs. Stokely, and Mrs. Penke, was crowded all the time; and a splendid business was done at the other ice-cream booth which presides Mrs. Hanna, Mrs. De Cordy, Mrs. Venable, Mrs. Bethel, and Mrs. Jones.

The supper room was well patronized. The Jackson Light Infantry were present and enjoyed a menu including crab, salads, oysters, ham, turkey, roast-beef and hosts of other good things.

The Royal Arcanum will be at supper this evening, and on Monday evening the Lee Rifles. At this booth are Mrs. Pollard, Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Roper, and Mrs. Fine.

This afternoon will be children's day, and there will be a special request, be a repetition of the cake walk. A special invitation has been extended the children of the Jackson Orphan Asylum to take lunch.

The program to-night will probably include the illustrated songs of Norton and Casey, and other interesting features.

Following are the donations received: Through Miss Petherbridge, Berkeley, Mrs. W. K. Baker, fancy work; Mrs. Claude B. White, fancy work; through Mrs. Chisnell, Mrs. W. E. Arrington, fancy work; Mrs. P. J. Murray, fancy work; Miss Regina Gann, fancy work; Mrs. Biggs, cakes; J. V. Alfriend, pictures; Burke & Gregory, (Norfolk) $10.00

Epworth League at Lamberts Point

Mr. Hugh J. Paylor, first vice-president of the Seaside Union of Epworth Leagues, and a party of prominent leaguers of this section, will visit Lamberts Point Sunday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a league chapter at the Methodist Church there. The party will leave Centenary Church at 2:45 p. m., and will be met at the Methodist Church by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Carroll, and those interested in the formation of an Epworth League there, at 3:30 o'clock. Mr. S. S. Lambeth, Jr., will speak on the duties of the first vice-president, and the devotional department, Mr. J. Ashby Williams will explain the department of mercy and help, and the duties of the second vice-president; and Mr. Frank L. Crocker will give a short talk on the operation of the third department of league work, the department of social and literary work, under the charge of the third vice-president. All persons living adjacent to the church, and young people especially, are cordially invited to be present at the hour announced, and are urged to join and support the league to be organized there.

Children's Service at First Presbyterian Church.

A special "Children's Service" will be held in the First Presbyterian Church this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Rev. A. D. McClure will preach the sermon. Mr. McClure has been conducting services in the First Presbyterian Church during this week. The attendance has been good, with much interest manifested. He will preach both morning and evening to-morrow.

NORFOLK AGAIN WINS.

The "Phenoms" Have Not Been Defeated This Season.

The Score Yesterday Was 17 To 1 In Favor Of The Locals—Two Pitchers Loaned The Visitors—No Game To-Day—League Season Opens Monday.

The Norfolk "Phenoms" again defeated the Old Point team at League Park yesterday afternoon. It was an easy victory for the locals, notwithstanding the fact that two of the home team pitchers were given to the visitors for this game.

Flanagan was one of the pitchers loaned to Old Point. It was the first game of the season for him, and consequently he was a little stiff, but the support he received was of such character to prevent him making an extraordinary effort. He was succeeded by Tierney, who took things easy, and the locals batted him hard and often. Both Matthews and McClelland, who pitched for Norfolk, showed up in great shape, and only allowed the visitors to get two hits each off them. The score was as follows:

There will be no game this afternoon, as the team from the University of Maryland could not reach here.

Jones, the Newport News man, played in center yesterday and showed up well. He hit the ball and fielded his position like an old-timer.

The season will open Monday, when Portsmouth will play in this city.

The Western Delegates.

The delegates from the Western Boards of Trade met to-day in an informal way with the Norfolk trucking men and talked over the feasibility of shipping direct from here to the West. While no definite action was taken, things assumed a very favorable aspect, and there seems to be no reasonable doubt that matters will soon assume tangible shape.

Yesterday morning the gentlemen from the West were driven around the city, and they were much pleased with what they saw. In the afternoon they went to Virginia Beach.

Some of the members will leave for their homes this morning, while others will stay with us a little while longer.
